

Freelance.com announces the signing of a contribution agreement with Coworkees

Press release Paris, 22
January 2021

Freelance.com (Euronext Growth Paris - FR0004187367 - ALFRE), a leading player in the relationship between companies and external talent, announces the signing of a contribution agreement with the Coworkees group, a platform that supports companies wishing to work with freelancers specialising in marketing and communication in France and Switzerland.

At the end of this process, which should lead to the merger of the two entities, Freelance.com will be able to strengthen its community of external talents with new profiles specialised in marketing and communication, and thus respond ever more effectively to the needs of companies. Founded in 2016 by Julie Huguet, Coworkees now has 10 employees, and works with over 1,000 companies and 25,000 freelancers.

"This merger between Freelance.com and Coworkees opens up great prospects. In less than two years, Coworkees has convinced thousands of freelancers and clients in France and Switzerland, thanks to its passionate teams and innovative initiatives. We are confident that their expertise will help strengthen our value proposition."

Laurent Levy, CEO of Freelance.com

"I am delighted with this operation which will enable us to continue our development in Europe and the deployment of new support services for both freelancers and companies."

Julie Huguet, Founder and CEO of Coworkees

About the Freelance.com Group

Positioned at the heart of the transformation of the labour market, the French leader in the relationship between companies and their external talent, Freelance.com relies on a community of 370,000 consultants and experts working as freelancers or in hyper-specialised SMEs.

The Freelance.com group offers a complete range of services: sourcing of expertise, external resource management, project management, wage portage, compliance, etc.

With a pro forma turnover of €321.6M in 2019* and a presence in France and abroad (Germany, Morocco, Singapore, Switzerland, UK), Freelance.com is also one of the leading players in the Future of Work with a mission: to liberate, simplify and secure the relationship between companies and their external talent.

* Pro forma turnover for 2019 following the merger with INOP'S, which was made official on 18 June.
